

CASE STUDY

Apartment Life

Nation-wide

Challenge:

Apartment Life was stuck in a complex, error-prone budgeting process. Manual spreadsheet compilation across departments created delays, inaccuracies, and a heavy burden on financial leadership.

The Martus Solution:

- Introduced intuitive tools for streamlining budgeting and forecasting
- Real-time access to data
- Users can manage their own budgets with ease
- Leadership can view and consolidate budgets automatically

We've been using Martus for budgeting and forecasting for about 3 years now. It has made our process so much easier, and our divisional leaders love the easy navigation and user-friendly features."

-Diana Lovett, Controller

Results

- 2x faster decision-making
- $25,000+ annual personnel cost savings
- 80 hours saved per budgeting cycle
- High user adoption across departments
