Choose your format: free DocSpace for small teams or business solution with scalability, branding, and priority customer care.

Effortless, limitless sharing and collaboration

Create rooms for any collaboration task

Organize spaces for working with selected users or document types. Apply settings that define key activities in the rooms: editing, commenting, reviewing, filling forms, browsing, and more.

Co-author documents securely

- Review documents;
- Co-edit in real-time or in paragraph-locking mode;
- Comment and chat;
- Browse version history;
- Compare documents;
- Share files with flexible sharing permissions.
- Make voice and video calls.

Invite users for collaboration under personal roles

Give access to your DocSpace or a room directly, with security in mind. Appoint admins and power users, limit actions in rooms to browsing, commenting, change tracking, or form filling. Invite unlimited number of external collaborators as basic users.

Professionally edit your documents

Work on your documents, spreadsheets, presentations, and forms with advanced editing and formatting features. Create fillable forms to compose briefs and contracts. Create and browse editable PDFs. Digitally sign contracts and agreements.

Work with all popular formats

ONLYOFFICE is highly compatible with MS Office and OpenDocument formats, and works with most popular file extensions with no distortions. Create and work with PDFs and e-books. View and play multimedia files: AVI, MPG, MPEG, MP3, MP4, WEBM, etc.
